

“Design is the fuel
that feeds
my soul”

— Kathy Anderson,
Eklektik Interiors

Broad-minded, selective, diverse...

Eklektik Interiors brings world-travelled style to Houston homes

Eclectic. It's a word you hear thrown about fairly often in design circles... but what does it really mean? For the Houston-based, award-winning design firm Eklektik Interiors, it's really quite simple: a collaborative team, an expansive perspective and a commitment to choosing only the best from a wide array of styles, ideas and design concepts.

So what does that mean for clients? Truly unique environments that make people feel absolutely incredible.

“Whether you're remodeling your current home, building something entirely new or revitalizing your current space, working with an interior designer should be fun,” says Eklektik Interior owner and principal designer Kathy Anderson.

“When we finish up a project, it's important that our clients have enjoyed the process — and it's even more important that they enjoy the results,” Kathy adds. “We really take the time to get it right because every project we do is different.

“Eklektik isn't just a name,” she says. “Our clients are never going to go to someone else's house and see the same thing.”

Indeed, it only takes one look at Eklektik Interior's extensive website portfolio (eklektikinteriors.com/portfolio) to see how truly diverse Kathy and her team are. Traditional, Transitional, Contemporary, French Country, Rustic, Texas Hill Country, Tropical, Mediterranean, Hacienda Style, Tuscan, Green, Modern Craftsman, Minimalistic, Antique, Moroccan, Italian Renaissance... if you can dream it, Eklektik Interiors can make it a reality.

“We are so grateful and blessed to do what we do,” Kathy says of herself and her team. “Design is the fuel that feeds my soul — and I hope my design, in turn, feeds the soul of every client we serve.”

The recipient of multiple awards from the ASID, the Greater Houston Builders Association and Houzz, Eklektik Interiors offers full-service interior design. Visit the showroom at 1300 Shepherd Drive in Houston or see the portfolio online at EklektikInteriors.com. To learn more, call 832-804-6300.
